

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Workforce Development, Inc. Recognizes Ten Employees

Rochester, MN–

Ten staff members at Workforce Development, Inc. were recently named to the Circle of Excellence. This award is determined annually, and was presented at the September All-Staff meeting. Measurable criteria for the Circle of Excellence include class evaluations, data entry accountability and validation, and professional development.

Workforce Development Inc (WDI) is a private, non-profit agency dedicated to developing and advancing the workforce. WDI services are focused on low-income and disadvantaged populations dealing with multiple barriers to achieving meaningful employment. On an annual basis, WDI serves thousands of people through career planning and pre-vocational skill training. WDI delivers its services through 10 area offices located throughout Southeast Minnesota, in which multiple agencies deliver related services for job seekers and employers.

Please join Workforce Development, Inc. in congratulating these valuable employees!

Staff (left to right) includes: Eglá Cervantes, Lisa Gaulrapp, Stacy Kaercher, John Knippen, Stacy Edland, Valerie Kvale, Brian Coleman, Ruth Borsheim, Connie Bublitz and Jennifer Becker.

The Rochester Team received the Team of the Year award for their hard work and measurable results.

Rochester Team Staff includes (left to right): Desirae Dyke, Kate Johansen, Meghan Kane, John Knippen, Ed Duda, Bruce Thompson, Jody Schaber, Ruth Borsheim, Deb Long, Warren Oslin, Jennifer Becker, Martha Thomford, Cheri Fischer, Bill Hahn, Jennifer Johnson. Not pictured: Lisset Becerra, Petina Dixon, Brenda Myers, Gloria Schaefer, Tiphonie Christianson, Melissa Lewis, Jeremy Hildman, Fred Woolman.

In addition, Bruce Bungum and Lynda Hyberger were recognized for twenty-five years of service.

Please join Workforce Development, Inc. in congratulating these valuable employees!